1 Aims and purpose

1.1 The aims and purpose of collective worship are:

- to provide an opportunity for the children to worship;
- to enable children to consider spiritual, moral, cultural and social issues;
- to enable children to explore their own beliefs;
- to encourage participation and response;
- to develop in children a sense of community spirit;
- to promote a common ethos with shared values and to reinforce positive attitudes;
- to teach children how to worship.
- to promote racial harmony and respect for all, combating prejudice and discrimination.

2 Collective worship

2.1 We understand worship to be a special act or occasion. Collective worship will involve all members of the school coming together and participating in a whole school worship or class groups may gather individually. Everyone is encouraged to take an active part in any act of worship.

2.2 In line with the 1988 Education Reform Act, which states that collective worship should be 'wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character', we normally base our worship on the teachings of Christian Church. However, we conduct our worship in a manner that is sensitive to the individual faith and beliefs of all members of the school.

2.3 While the majority of acts of worship in our school are Christian, we also hold worship that reflect other religious traditions that are represented in the school and the wider community.

3 Organisation of collective worship

3.1 We hold a daily act of collective worship in our school. This is made up of

Monday and Friday whole school assemblies, and on all other days they are held as separate class or key stage occasions.

3.2 We conduct worship in a dignified and respectful way. We tell children that worship time is a period of calm reflection. We regard it as a special time and expect children attempt to behave in an appropriate way as best they can. We ask them to be quiet and thoughtful and to listen carefully to the teachings and participate fully in prayer and hymns. We create an appropriate atmosphere by using music and candles or other objects that act as a focal point for the attention of the children.

3.3 The head teacher or other members of staff normally conduct worship, but sometimes local clergy or other representatives of local religious groups conduct them instead.

3.4 We take the themes of our worship from the traditions of the Christian faith and we often reflect the festivals and events of the Christian calendar. Sometimes the themes of our assemblies reflect and build on topics that we teach as part of the school curriculum, particularly PSHCE. We plan our worship as part of a series of themes half termly.

3.5 Our worship reflects the achievements and learning of the children. We encourage the children to participate in worship by showing their work to the other children and raising issues that they have discussed in their classes. Worship offers an opportunity to acknowledge and reward children for their achievements both in and out of schools. They play an important part in promoting the ethos of the school, which is that all children are valued and all achievements are recognised.

3.6 We invite parents to worship on special occasions and we encourage them to attend, as this promotes the community spirit of the school and is a practical demonstration of the way the home and the school work together to support the achievements of our children.

3.7 We welcome governors' attendance at our worship at any time.

4 Right of withdrawal

4.1 We expect all children to attend collective worship. However, any parent can request permission for their child to be excused from attending religious worship and the school will make alternative arrangements for the supervision of the child during the period concerned. Parents do not have to explain or give reasons for this. This complies with the 1944 Education Act and was restated in the 1998 Education Reform Act.

4.2 The head teacher keeps a record of all children who withdraw from collective worship.

5 Monitoring and review

5.1 It is the role of a named school governor with responsibility for religious education and collective worship to monitor the policy and practice of collective worship. The governor concerned liaises with the co-ordinator before jointly reporting to the governors on religious education and collective worship within the subject reporting schedule.

POLICY REVIEW

The policy for Collective Worship was drafted, discussed and agreed during Autumn 2010. It is monitored during each year and evaluated and reviewed annually.

The Headteacher is responsible for the policy's review.
