

PROGRESSION IN READING
Date		Review Date			Subject Leader
September 2019		August 2020			Paul Quarry
This document aims to give guidance on the progression of Reading knowledge, skills and techniques across the year groups. It can also be used to differentiate work, and expectations, appropriately for pupils working above and below age-related expectations (particularly SEND pupils and GD pupils). Potential GD pupils should also be encouraged to read more widely (in terms of book types, genres and authors), independently and freely and be expected to make comparisons between the wider range of books that they read. Their increasingly varied reading choices, critical thinking and in depth evaluation of the texts they read should be evident in their Reading Records and Reading Journals. In English, like all other subjects, we recognise the importance of the methods and practice of teaching (the pedagogy) we choose to use in enabling pupils to know more, understand more and remember more. In English, the following approaches will be used, and be evident in pupils' Literacy Books and Reading Journals, in order to ensure that Reading opportunities are as effective as possible and that pupils progress throughout the year and across year groups during their Reading experiences in school:
Teaching Sequence in English	Reading a text, appropriate in age and content, checking understanding			Possible pedagogical approaches used in English, Reading	Behaviourism		Direct teacher instruction; modelling of skills and techniques; demonstration
	Analysing texts studied in terms of structure and language				Constructivism		Inquiry-based learning; outdoor learning
	Studying, learning and practising relevant grammatical and vocabulary based skills				Social Constructivism		Teacher modelling; questioning; mix of individual, paired and group instruction
	Shorter writing composition opportunities and activities to respond to Reading				Liberationism		Pupil-led learning; opportunities to showcase learning
	Planning longer pieces of writing				Learning, working and talking like an author / writer		Being introduced to the key vocabulary that an author / writer would use; defining the key vocabulary that an author / writer would use; high expectations of pupils 'talking' like an author / writer.
	Creating longer pieces of writing
	Evaluating and self/peer assessing pieces of writing
